

Class project

For 4 bonus points:

Use only two thin lenses (you choose the focal lengths) to design a telescope with it one can see a non-inverted and enlarged image. State clearly which lens is the object lens, which lens is the eye piece and the distance between them. Prove that with your design the angular magnification of an object through this telescope is greater than 1.