One of the goals for this course was "to demonstrate the ability to use inter/multi-disciplinary approaches for understanding complex issues."

Identify the disciplines whose approaches were included in this course and describe two contributions that each discipline made to your understanding of the topic.

See the rubric for details.